

TeKnoWave's NETWORKING SYSTEMS ADMINISTRATOR/ANALYST

Narrative Summary:

Part of a National program to increase Aboriginal participation in the Information Technology [IT] sector, this intense and challenging program offers many benefits to graduates including: a Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities approved diploma, a University certificate in Management Studies and several industry recognized certifications.

The first "on-reserve" pilot program in Canada!

Admission Requirement:

Formal interview with TeKnoWave Co-coordinator

Academic: grade 12 or equivalent or minimum 70% on MTCU mature student entrance exam

Course Outline and Information:

Modular based training builds on information and technology skills and includes:

- Computer Concepts
- A+ Hardware Technician Certification [A+]
- Cisco Certified Network Associate [CCNA]
- Solaris Unix Administration
- Microsoft Certified Systems Administrator [MCSA]

Additional Courses Include:

- University Level Management Certificate
- Business & Communication Skills
- Project Management
- Cultural Awareness Seminars

A mandatory 4-week, unpaid Community Internship Program provides on-the-job experience while giving back to local communities. For a complete course outline visit <http://www.teknowave.ca/programs/neteng.pdf>

Hours and Duration:

Fifty two [52] week program, Monday to Friday 9:00 am to 4:00 pm
Four [4] weeks of scheduled holidays

Ogwehoweh Skills and Trades Training Centre, 16 Sunrise Court, Ohsweken, ON N0A1M0
To apply or seek more information, please call: 519-445-1515 or toll free at: 1-866-827-5912